Dear Professor Kirkpatrick:

I regret that I will not be able to participate in the symposium on CIA to which you invited me during Parents' Weekend at Brown. I had hoped to be there; however, after I talked to you on the phone last Wednesday, I learned that I would have to go on a trip out of the country on the 10th of October.

With every good wish,

Faithfully,

Vernon A. Walters
Lieutenant General, USA

Lt. General Vernon Walters,

Dear General Walters:

I talked to Bill Colby yesterday and invited him to come to Brown on the evening of Saturday, October 11th to participate in a Symposium on "CIA: Past Transgressions and Future Controls". The occasion will be Parents' Weekend and we will expect a large live audience and radio and television coverage.

Bill is committed that evening to a reunion in Minneapolis of the O.S.S. Norwegian team, but he suggested that you might be willing to participate. A check with your office indicated that you might be free that evening. We would be honored to have you as our guest.

The format will be for a panel of four or five with myself as moderator. Each panelist will have five minutes to state a position, followed by a chance for rebuttal after all have stated their positions. We then will have a general exchange and if time permits questions from the audience. The program will start at eight and conclude promptly at ten. We used a similar format for a Defense Symposium and it was very well received. I enclose a transcript of that.

I hope you can be with us. I will call you on the 17th on your return.

Very truly yours,

Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, Jr.
Professor
